Detailed Action

1. Claims 1-20 are presented for examination.

Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record does not teach or disclose the claimed processor having an instruction pipeline for executing processor instructions which define a memory access size and a cache memory for storing cache lines in a plurality of memory banks that have a block size that is greater than the memory access size (see Fig 3, e.g. each bank is the width of two words, or twice the memory access size), the cache memory including mapping logic for storing contiguous groups of bits, of size equal to the memory access size, in different ones of the plurality of memory banks.
3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
